

TRADE SHOW

TECHSICO is hosting our second annual trade show on APRIL 27th at our facility at 910 South Hudson Ave. Last year was a success, and we want this year to be even better.

Over 450 people attended, with 34 vendor booths, and over $8,000 in prizes were given away. This year there will be a larger focus on IT, technology products, and related services. The show is designed to target businesses technology needs and give business owners technical solutions no matter what their needs.
